Guests of My Life

You came in the early dawn, and you came in the night.

Your name was uttered by the spring flowers and yours by the shower of rain.

You brought the harp into my life and you brought the lamp.

After you had taken your leave,

I found God's footprints on the floor.

Now when I am at the end of my pilgrimage

I leave in the evening flowers of worship -

my salutations to you all.

JUST A THOUGHT -

We remember all the Religious and Priests from our Archdiocese of Birmingham ministering among us. We belong to an International Church and so we pray for all priests – over 400,000 – secular and religious - some who have left the active ministry, some in trouble. Our International Church is big enough for everyone - saints and sinners. We do indeed pray for priests world-wide.
