“LORD, MAKE ME KNOW YOUR WAYS: LORD, TEACH ME YOUR PATHS”

JESUS SAID: “WATCH YOURSELVES - STAY AWAKE”

Rom. 8.15

The Preface for today's Mass highlights two aspects of this season - WATCHING and HOPING. The Gospel reminder from Jesus that we are to stay awake is extended a little further. We are to watch. We are to remain alert so that we do not miss whatever He wants to say to us. God speaks to us in countless ways. But we are not to be anxious about it - we are not watching in fear.

In fact, ADVENT IS SIMPLY BUBBLING WITH HOPE - WE KNOW OUR SALVATION IS NEAR.

The Advent season invites us to look back with gratitude and joy to Christ's coming at Bethlehem - but it reminds us that Christ IS WITH US NOW, as he said he would be - where we gather, in our Homes, at Mass, in our hearts, too. His coming, first and last, is a revelation of love. We look forward to his final coming in glory - not with fear in our hearts but ALIVE WITH HOPE.

THIS WEEK

Think of surprising turns your life has taken; bring these thoughts into your prayer. Look in the newspapers. What are the troubling signs? What are the hopeful signs? Try to bring hope to someone this week.

Prayer for Advent

Spirit of God, you stir our hearts in the Advent season to awaken us from the spiritual doldrums. You urge us to be alert to the coming of the Lord, whether now or at the end of time. You invite us to embrace our longing for the fullness of a life without end. Enlighten our hearts with your holy wisdom so that we might seek and find you, especially in the needs of the poor. Give us the courage and perseverance to look for the Holy One, who offers us more than the world can ever give. Amen.
